

WINCHESTER TRIMMED BY PENNANT WINNERS

Richmond Wins First Game and Ties Second in Double-Header--Revelle Invincible--"Thousand-Per-Cent. Jack" Fans Cy McDonald Three Times, Twice With Bases Full--Sieber's Stick Work Decides Both Contests.

The champions downed the Winchester aggregation yesterday in the first game of a double-header and tied them in the second contest, after letting the Valley boys score all their runs on errors. Richmond's two star pitchers, "Smiling Dutch" and "Thousand-Per-Cent. Jack" Quinn did the box honors for the locals, and never has prettier work been seen here than the exhibitions which they gave the public. "Dutch" let the Winchester bunch down without an earned run, and Quinn's work was as pretty an exhibition of head and wing work as any one could wish to see. But for errors, Quinn would have blanketed the Valleyites in the second game. Paul Sieber, after the slab artists, was the hero of both games. The champions timely hit the first game and tied up the second, and he received a couple of ovations, such as any man might well be proud to receive.

The first game. There was a very small crowd of fans in the park when the Empire Mace called play ball for the first contest, but as the game progressed the faithful began to swarm in, and by the end of the game there were 4,000 people to yell themselves hoarse when Richmond scored the only run of the game in the ninth. Stierzer, the southpaw, who has been guarding the right garden for the Winchester bunch, was on the slab, opposing "Smiling Dutch," and he pitched a beautiful game, allowing the champions only three singles. But two of these and a base on balls were bunched in the last frame, and they gave the game to the locals with an earned run, while a goose egg was all that his teammates could get off Revelle.

A remarkable feature of the first contest is that only six assists are credited to the Valley of the ninth, ten of the champions going out on fly balls to the outfield, while five popped up fouls or flies to the infielders.

"Big Cy" McDonald knocked one in the first game that hit the left field fence a few inches from the top. It was a home run, and it was the only one of scoring out of the park. It netted the big boy a two-sacker, but Dutch evened it up with him by fanning him out in the fourth inning.

"Red" Walsh caught the first game, and he caught well, so his work in the eighth, being being of the ninth, was a "hot" home run, a little windpawd wearer is all right and his backstop deserves more than a passing notice.

Lipe, Kautzler and Stinson played a great fielding game, and Sieber won the day by his pitching in the ninth. The Winchester outfield did great work, accepting some hard chances without an error. The play of both teams was faultless, with the exception of an excusable error by Sandherr of an extremely difficult catch.

Richmond scored the only run of the game in the last half of the ninth. Heffron walked. Lipe bunted safe, advancing Bill to second. Kautzler popped up one to pitcher. Stinson was an infield out. Sieber singled and Bill brought in the winning run, while pandemonium reigned and the grandstand and bleachers went wild.

The second game. In the second game Richmond would have won an easy victory but for a series of rank errors, which allowed three Winchester men to cross the rubber with unearned runs. Quinn came on the ring line for the Champions, and he sustained his well-earned reputation as a heady twirler and hard worker, and on his work he merited a shut-out. But for the rank misplay of Ison in the third, with two men out, he would have won his game in a walk. Quinn's headwork in the first and second innings was perfectly the master of the whole situation, but he fielded his position admirably and did not let a few men getting on bases rattle him a bit. Moreover, he struck out "Cy" McDonald, the terror of the pitchers, three times--twice with the bases full--and kept the hits of the heavy hitters so well separated that, without the errors which figured in the Winchester run column, he would have scored an easy shut-out. His work, taken altogether, was the prettiest seen here this season.

Johnson, who did the slugging for the Valleyites, was hit safely six times. The hits were bunched, and helped out by bases on balls, three runs, two of them earned, were made off of his delivery. Quinn all the way through had decidedly the best of the argument.

For Winchester the fielding of Knox and Baker and the hitting of Bentz were the features. Sieber did the slugging, and he sustained his well-earned reputation for Richmond, getting a single and a three-sacker out of three times up.

Winchester scored in the third. Dugan was an easy infield out. Bentz singled. Knox hit safely. Maby's in-field out advanced them a base each. Quinn walked. Sterzer, Johnson knocked an easy one to Ison, which he juggled, and Bentz scored. Knox

FOOTBALL PLAYER TACKLING THE DUMMY

While tackling the dummy, as this player is doing, Cooper, of the University of North Carolina squad, was seriously injured a few days ago, and has been taken to the Johns Hopkins Hospital for treatment.

R.-M. COLLEGE HAS LIGHT, FAST TEAM

Loss of Last Year's Experienced Line Men Gives Coach Warren Hard Work.

Handolph-Macon's football team is gradually being whipped into good form under the supervision of Coach Warren. The team, while light, promises to be a fast one, and what it lacks in weight, will be made up in the speed of its individual players and the rapidity with which it runs off its plays.

During the past week there were daily scrimmages between the team and the scrubs, and the men are developing into steady, reliable players. While handicapped by the loss of nearly all of last year's experienced line, only three lettered men and four of the subs returning, Warren has met the loss of such experienced men as "Woody" Harlan, who has played center and tackle, Woodhouse, S. J. center, Balderson, tackle, Bush, guard, Levy, guard, Powell, half back, Harris, half back, and Dulin, guard, by developing a lot of green material into good men to fill the places of last year's veterans.

Harlan, who has played two years on the team, is captain and full back. He is a heavy, consistent player, a good kicker and fine line player. "Kid" Chapman, at center, is a tried man, whose tackling is sure and hardy. Drewry and Story made good on last year's team, and can be counted on. Big Jackson, last year's scrubs, is a tower of strength in the line and is showing up well; Gillette played his first football last year, and is a good player, and that was when he made a star end; Sessler, Beale and Newman are all last year's scrubs; Cox, left tackle, and Rowe, right half, are newcomers. The other members of the squad are showing up well and the team given below may be changed considerably before the season ends.

The following men will play against Fredericksburg College Monday: Story, left end; Cox, left tackle; Drewry, left guard; Newman, center; Balderson, right guard; Jackson, right half; Gillette, right end; Chapman, quarter; Rowe, right half; Sessler, left half; Harlan, full (captain).

Richmond Amateur League. Standing of the Clubs. C. C. A. 11, 2, 846; Battle Axe 11, 2, 846; Manchester 10, 3, 789; Brooklands 8, 7, 487; Piedmonts 8, 8, 273; Imperials 3, 10, 221; Elks 2, 12, 143.

Results Yesterday. Manchester, 3; Battle Axe, 0. C. C. A., 18; Brooklands, 13; Piedmonts, 3; Husters, 9; Imperials, 0 (forfeited).

The Richmond Amateur Baseball League came to a close yesterday, with the C. C. A. and Battle Axe teams tied for the pennant. The tie will be played off at the C. C. A. field, Saturday, at 2 o'clock. An interesting contest is promised. Manchester, after getting a bad start, came in strong at the finish with the rest of the teams, occupying very nearly the same position since the league started. The Imperials failed to put a team on the field yesterday, and forfeited to the Fulton Husters, 0 to 0.

Manchester, 3; Battle Axe, 0. Waymacks' twirling proved too much of an enigma for the Battle Axe yesterday, in which the Empire Mace called play ball for the first game of a double-header and tied them in the second contest, after letting the Valley boys score all their runs on errors.

Brooklands Win. The Brooklands defeated the Piedmonts with ease yesterday by the score of 13 to 3. Carl's timely batting was the feature.

Church Hill 8, S. Athletic League. The Church Hill Sunday School League will have an entertainment at Leigh Street Baptist Church, Monday night, the 28th, at 8:15 o'clock. The object of this meeting is to draw the members of the league together, and to present the pennant to Hester Memorial team, the winners of the championship. Mayor D. C. Richardson will, on behalf of the league, present the pennant to the Hester Memorial team, the winners of the championship. Admission only by invitation, except members of board of governors and registered players.

PUSHBALL FIGHT BETWEEN CLASSES

Washington and Lee Freshmen and Sophomores Have Lively Scrimmage--New Men Win.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] LEXINGTON, Va., September 26.—The annual pushball fight between the sophomores and freshmen at Washington and Lee University was pulled off this afternoon, and the freshmen won by the score of 15 points to 0. A large crowd witnessed the contest.

The contestants fought with all their power, and the casualties were few, not many men being knocked out by the sophomores lined up with thirty men and the freshmen with forty. The ball was of leather, and was eight feet in diameter, the same one used last year, when the sophomores won. L. W. Wilson, of Cumberland, Md., was captain of the sophomores, and Thomas McPheters, classmate of Lexington, was captain of the freshmen. The halves were ten and seven minutes, respectively, but it took one and one-half hours to finish the contest. The two sides lined up and rushed for the leather sphere. Then followed the scrimmage, in which clothing was torn, bruises and blood followed, but no one was seriously hurt. The game was won in the first half.

Howitzers Win. There was an interesting game of football yesterday afternoon between the Howitzers and the Fulton, on the latter's grounds. While the game was lacking in team work, it was snappy, and gives promise of good ball by the local teams this season. Those deserving special mention are Rowe, Moody and Holt, of the Howitzers, and Hill, Bowles and Kerr, of the Fulton.

The line-up was as follows: Howitzers. Players. Fullons. Holt, left end, Saunders. Bowles, left guard, Kerr. Moody, right guard, Maynard. Wilson, right half, Mann. Frazier, right end, Samuels. McFarland, quarterback, Rice. Rowe, left half, Phillips. Tillery, right half, Faulconer. Score, 5 to 0, in favor of Fulton. Touchdown by Kerr. Umpire, Enright. Timekeepers, Avery and Kuester.

ANGELUS MAKES NEW RECORD AT GRAVESEND

Able Piloted by Schilling, Wins by Nose From Fair Play in 1:59--Belmont's Horse Is Poorly Ridden by Jockey Gilbert--Other Winners, Ida D., Bayonet, Joe Madden, Duke of Roanoke and Rosslare.

GRAVESEND, N. Y., September 26.—With anything like a competent rider, August Belmont's Fair Play would have won the Oriental handicap, one mile and three-sixteenths, at Gravesend to-day with plenty to spare. But as it was, under abominable handling by Jockey Gilbert, Fair Play was beaten by a nose by T. H. Haddock, Jr.'s Angelus, who ran the distance in 1:59--a new track record. Angelus was in receipt of fifteen pounds from Fair Play, and was the selection of nearly all the wise men at the track. When the barrier went up Shilling took Angelus to the front to set a fast pace. S. C. Hildreth's Dandelion and F. A. Forster's Doran, an added starter, were after him quickly, but Fair Play, when the horses came down past the judges stand for the first time, was last. At that point Angelus led by five lengths and swept into the home stretch in majestic style. Then Gilbert sat down to ride Fair Play in dead earnest, and Mr. Belmont's great colt came with a tremendous rush under the whip. It looked as if he might get up, too, but Shilling went to a drive at the sixteenth pole, and Angelus just lasted long enough to win by four or five inches. Doran was third, four lengths back. Gilbert was roughly scored when he came back to the scales.

CAROLINA ELEVEN HARD AT PRACTICE

Indications Point to Strong Team This Season--Injured Player Carried to Hospital.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] CHAPEL HILL, N. C., September 26.—Football is now the talk of the university. The first game is only a few days off, and much interest is being manifested in the daily scrimmages. Coach Greene has had the squad at hard practice every day this week.

Tuesday afternoon was spent in punting, and in teaching the ends to get down fast under the kicks. In the daily scrimmage the two best eleven have been showing up in fine style for this early in the season. Crosswell, last year's full back, will not be in the game this fall, as he had to have an operation performed for appendicitis. However, with such material as Kelly, Williams, Hughes, Rhodes and Schmitt to pick from, it will not be difficult to select a first-class full back. Deans and Hughes are both showing up well at present. Howell, last year's guard, is a tower of strength at his old position. Isley, the 210-pound freshman, is also showing up well at guard. Norwood, a 190-pounder, is showing signs of developing into a strong tackle. Kelly and Ruffin did especially well in offensive work in yesterday's scrimmage.

At present the condition of Mr. John Cooper, of Clinton, N. C., who was seriously hurt tackling a dummy, has not changed. He has been carried to Johns Hopkins Hospital, of Baltimore.

To Protest Game. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] NORFOLK, Va., September 26.—At a meeting held to-day the sportsmen of Norfolk formed a local organization, which will have for its purpose the effective enforcement of the game laws of the State in this vicinity, and the people of Portsmouth, Norfolk and Elizabeth will be asked to join.

It is proposed to have a nominal fee collected of each member, and the fund thus raised will be used in supplementing the rewards offered by the State for violators of the game laws. The following officers have been named: President, T. S. Garnett, Jr.; Secretary, Frank St. Clair; Treasurer, C. G. Metts.

The popularity of the aged Robin Hood on at the Jamestown track to-day, and the proportion in the fourth race, but he failed to justify the confidence which his backers had placed in him.

The meet here was more successful than its promoters even dared expect. Most of the horses and horsemen got away in a hurry, and the weather was to-day and the track fast. Summaries: Free-for-all trot or pace--Ed. Barth, C. (J. E. Jones), 1; 1; Noah B., b. g. (W. Nicholson), 2; Alvin, c. h. (H. Harrison), 3; Dr. Marvin, b. g. (Ira A. Beaver), 4. Time, 2:16. 2:15-2.5.

Fifth race--selling, one and one-half miles--R. E. Watkins, 103 (Cable) (even) first; Cityvader, 103 (Steel) (5 to 1) second; Besterling, 102 (C. Henry) (9 to 5) third; Time, 1:48 1-4. Alauda and Fancy Bird also ran. Sixth race--three-year-olds, one mile--Carly, 97 (Fulton) (2 to 1) first; Evelyn S., 97 (Steel) (2 to 1) second; Inventress, 107 (C. Henry) (even) third; Time, 1:42. Semper Vera, Wild Cherry and Fred Mace also ran.

MANY FAST HORSES ARE HEADED FOR RICHMOND

Big Strings of Racers From Lynchburg, Roanoke and Jamestown Will Come to Fair Races--Attractive Daily Card During Five-Day Meet Will Draw Many Stables Here--Virginia-Bred Horses' Good Record.

General Manager Mark R. Lloyd, who attended the fair in Roanoke, returned with a very good report as to the outlook for entries for the races that will take place here October 5-10, during five out of the six days of the Virginia State Fair. The horsemen expressed themselves pleased with the fact that so many racers are taking part in the program, thirty as this is larger than at any other five days' meeting in this country this year. There certainly will be sport enough for everybody, especially as one of the races each day is a steeplechase.

As the entries will close next Tuesday night, at 10 o'clock, for the state fair races, the horsemen will go to the entire program very carefully during the short time which intervenes. Of the harness races, four stakes of $500 each are already filled. The other six events of the harness races, the 2:15, 2:20 and 2:30, and the free-for-all trot or pace. Records made this week at the Roanoke fair, or any other place, will be no bar, and letters containing entries can be deposited in the mail on Wednesday morning, September 30th, and will be accepted if postmarked not later than the noon of that day.

And when they get here is that the track is in superb condition. Whether there is rain or whether the soil is drying up for lack of precipitation or moisture from the clouds, the course of the Virginia State Fair will not feel the effects of adverse weather conditions. Racing will be laid on the track during the downpour of rain as well as though the weather was ideal.

Horses Arriving at State Fair Track. Most of the horses that were at Roanoke during the past week were shipped immediately after the races in that city up to Lynchburg, where they went en route to Richmond, to remain here until the State Fair. It is believed that a number of the running horses that were at Roanoke, and the Jamestown Driving Association during the past week will be shipped to Richmond this week.

Records Made at Lynchburg. As the Lynchburg Fair will be held this week opening on Tuesday, the 29th instant, the day on which the entries for the Richmond races close, a branch office of the Virginia State Fair will be opened in the Hill City, at some place from which racers can be in charge. The horsemen, accordingly, can make their entries there just the same as though they were in the main office, and this will be a great convenience, and will insure a large number of entries than otherwise, as there will be a choice of places after Lynchburg.

Running Events Attract Attention. The twenty running events of the Virginia State Fair, which are the best in the Virginia-Carolina circuit. All the running classes will be flat races or dashes as they are also known, with the exception of the five steeplechases, already mentioned. It will take quite a lot of horses for the twenty events, but they are coming from North and South. Mr. Maguire, of the five steeplechases, will be racing some. The starter, Mr. T. Maguire, of Toronto, Canada, has written that some of the best horses he has shipped this week to the Virginia State Fair from Fort Erie and other points in Canada.

One thing that the horsemen will notice is that the track is in superb condition. Whether there is rain or whether the soil is drying up for lack of precipitation or moisture from the clouds, the course of the Virginia State Fair will not feel the effects of adverse weather conditions. Racing will be laid on the track during the downpour of rain as well as though the weather was ideal.

JAMESTOWN MEET WAS BIG SUCCESS

Attractive Card Closes Session Yesterday--Pete Vinegar Springs Surprise.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] NORFOLK, Va., September 26.—The second meeting of the Jamestown Jockey Club ended to-day, an attractive card having been arranged for the closing. Good racing resulted, and one of the biggest crowds of the meet was at the track.

The surprise of the day was the performance of Pete Vinegar in the hurdle handicap. Being played by but 3 to 1 against Rye Boy, 2 to 3, and Hazel Baker, 8 to 5, he was well to the front of the race at all times, and won the race in a fine finish. Jockey J. Hannigan was suspended for his riding on Rye Boy in this race. He was charged with holding the horse. His case was referred to the National Hunt Association.
